

Welcome to Barcelona Obertura Season 23-24

Come for the music,
stay for the rest.

We are proud to present a new edition of Barcelona Obertura, Classical & Lyrical season, a joint initiative of the Liceu Opera, the Palau de la Música Catalana and L' Auditori promoting Barcelona as one of the cities where classical music matters most.

With the enormous success of the first Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival in March 2019, our town now has a festival devoted to the most renowned and celebrated classical music artists while showcasing the talent of our local musicians.

In addition to promoting the city of Barcelona internationally through classical music, Barcelona Obertura is committed to bringing music to residents and visitors alike. This year marks the 5th edition of the free festival Ciutat de Clàssica, held in parallel to the Obertura Spring Festival, in which young talent from the city bring music to audiences in such unexpected places as museums, art galleries, libraries, neighbourhood civic centres or even historic buildings.

June sees the acclaimed free concert Clàssica a la Platja. The Liceu Opera Orchestra and the Barcelona Symphony Orchestra (OBC), together with the choirs of the Palau, perform a symphonic concert on the beach with a stage built on the sand in front of more than 40.000 people with the Mediterranean Sea as a background.

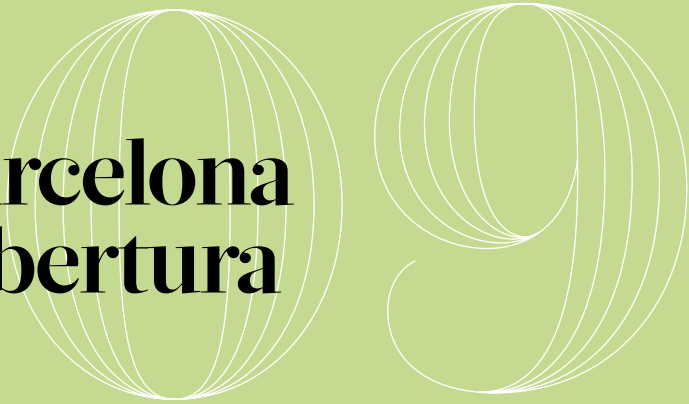

This collaboration between different institutions shows the capacity of the cultural institutions in Barcelona and their enormous potential.

I want to thank all three institutions for their commitment. Recognise the work done by their conductors and teams, and all our partners involved. Barcelona Obertura shows our determination to establish our city among the most attractive cultural capitals in the south of Europe.

As a president of Barcelona Obertura, I am proud of this project and its future.

Ramon Agenjo

Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival & Barcelona Obertura Ciutat de Clàssica

Mediterranean lifestyle, boundless culture, fabulous architecture, museums and an unparalleled dining and drinking scene. Any time is great to visit Barcelona, but if there's a choice, March should be the election. That's when Barcelona Obertura Spring Festival and Barcelona Obertura Ciutat de Clàssica take place, and the whole city blooms and breathes classical music.

Barcelona, City of Music

Pau Casals, Alícia de Larrocha, Frederic Mompou, Josep Carreras, Jaume Aragall, Montserrat Caballé, Victoria de los Angeles, Jordi Savall, Cuarteto Casals... all have one thing in common: they call Barcelona their hometown. The city has always been proud of their rich musical heritage. Following continuous efforts over many decades, today Barcelona enjoys an exceptional variety of music on offer at three spectacular venues that just for themselves, are well worth a visit, Liceu Opera Barcelona, Palau de la Música Catalana and L'Auditori Barcelona. These institutions present, season after season, very attractive programs which welcome many major artists of our times to Barcelona. By dimension and scope, Barcelona truly is a city of music.

Come for the music,

Barcelona is considered one of the most attractive cities in the world to visit and enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle. It has boundless culture, fabulous architecture and museums, vibrant festivals and an unparalleled dining and drinking scene.

It is a city with a wide and original range of leisure activities that encourages you to visit again and again. Overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, and famous for Gaudí and other modernist architecture, Barcelona is one of the most modern cities in Europe.

It is a centre of new trends in the world of culture, fashion and gastronomy. It combines the creativity of its artists and designers with respect and care for local traditions. Barcelona combines the charm and slower rhythm of the old town, the avant-garde vibe of the most modern neighbourhoods and the fast beat of one of the most visited cities in the world. Its warm climate, with more than 2,500 hours of sunshine a year, make it an ideal city to visit all year round.
